

PRIVACY POLICY

Application

This policy is applicable to all employees, consultants, and agents of:

Company/ies: Everest Wealth Management (Pty) Ltd. Company Reg. No. 2002/004025/07

These companies are collectively referred to as “Everest”.

Scope

This Policy has been adopted in line with South Africa’s data protection legislation, in order to assist in establishing and maintaining an adequate level of personal data privacy in the collecting, processing, disclosing and cross-border transfer of personal data including that relating to current, past and prospective Everest personnel, clients, suppliers, contractors and business associates of Everest.

Policy

Everest is committed to protecting the privacy of every person and ensuring that personal information is used appropriately and transparently and transferred securely.

Everest subscribes to the Protection of Personal Information Act Principles and will:

1. Obtain and process information fairly.
2. Keep information only for one or more specified, explicit, and lawful purposes.
3. Use and disclose information only in ways compatible with these purposes.
4. Keep information safe and secure.
5. Keep information accurate, complete, and up to date.
6. Ensure that information is adequate, relevant, and not excessive.
7. Retain information for no longer than is necessary for the purpose or purposes.
8. Provide a copy of a person’s personal data kept to the person on request.

Types of personal information Everest collects

Sharing personal information

We will disclose your personal information to service providers, affiliates or third parties including Investment Managers, Custodians, Linked Investment Services Platforms and Insurers for everyday business purpose e.g., to facilitate transactions and maintain your accounts or in response to court orders or legal investigations.

We have a mutual understanding with all our product suppliers and third-party service providers with regards to the protection of Personal Information.

Due to the nature of our infrastructure information may also be shared with:

- Microsoft Corporation

Sending personal information to foreign countries

Some of the service providers that we use are located in other countries, for example our cloud storage service providers are located in the European Union. If we send information to anyone who is located in a country that does not have the same level of protection of personal information as South Africa or the European Union, we require that they undertake to protect the personal information of our customers to the same level that we do.

We provide for appropriate safeguards by means of contracts between us and our foreign service providers.

Monitoring of communications

We may record telephone conversations and electronic communications with you for the purposes of (i) ascertaining the details of instructions given, the terms on which any transaction was executed or any other relevant circumstances, (ii) ensuring compliance with our regulatory obligations; and / or (iii) detecting and preventing the commission of financial crime.

Data breaches

We have implemented appropriate technical measures to prevent data breaches and have taken reasonable steps to minimise the impact of a breach.

We regularly monitor our systems for possible vulnerabilities and security breaches, but no system is perfect, and we cannot guarantee that we will never experience a breach of any of our physical, technical or managerial safeguards. If something should happen, we have taken steps to minimise the threat to your privacy. We will let you know of any breaches which affect your personal information and inform you how you can help minimise the impact.

Your rights under data protection law

You have the right to be informed about the personal information we have, and what we do with it.

You have the right to:

- ask us what we know about you;
- ask what information was sent to our suppliers, service providers or any other third party;
- ask us to update, correct or delete any out-of-date or incorrect personal information we hold about you if it is no longer necessary to provide services to you (we can unfortunately not take responsibility for incorrect or outdated information if we were provided with incorrect information or you failed to inform us of changes);
- receive all of the information we have about you and to transfer it to another service provider in machine readable form;
- unsubscribe from any direct marketing communications we may send you;
- object to the processing of your personal information.

You can request access to the information we hold about you or correct your personal information by contacting our deputy information officer.

It can take us up to 21 business days to respond to your request, because there are procedures that we need to follow. In certain cases, we may require proof of your identity and sometimes changes to your information may be subject to additional requirements such as valid proof of residence.
